

CONTENTS

Preface to 2019 edition	3
Introduction	3
Official Rules for the Judging of Roses	5
General Points of Judging	10
Reasons for Disqualification	10
Judging Etiquette	11
Defects often seen which are not reasons for disqualification	12
Judging Roses	12
Judging Decorative Blooms	14
Judging Exhibition Blooms	16
Judging Fully Open Blooms	18
Judging Small Stems of Roses	20
Judging Large Stems of Roses	22
Judging Miniature-Type Roses	24
Pointing Roses	24
Choosing the Champion Bloom or Stem	26
Judging National Shows	27
Judging Medal Classes	28
Judging Roses of One Cultivar in Three Stages of Development	29
Judging Display Vases	30
Judging Vases of Blooms	31
Judging Bowls	32
Judging Bowls of Roses and Garden Flowers	33
Judging Seedling Roses	33
Judging Single-Type Roses	34
Judging Heritage Roses	34
Judging Baskets	35

Acknowledgements:

Hayden Foulds
Doug Grant
Eileen Wilcox
April Grant

Val Clarke
Derrol White
Bree Grant
Cover Photo 'Loving Memory' courtesy Adrian Bullen

NOTICE

District Rose Societies are requested to print the following statement in their District Show Schedules:

“The show will be judged strictly in accordance with the Official Rules for the Judging of Roses of the New Zealand Rose Society Inc. as revised in 2019, and exhibitors should be conversant with these Rules, copies of which are obtainable on request from the District Rose Society’s Secretary”.