

Welcome to the 2023 New Zealand Rose Review.

Roses continue to remain very popular with good sales reported around the country in the last year. It is important to order early especially for new releases and those grown as standard where numbers may be limited.

This edition reports on 100 newer roses grown in New Zealand in the past season as there is always room for 'one more' in every garden.

Please support those advertisers who advertise in the New Zealand Rose Review and mention you saw their advert in here.

Enjoy your roses.
